(Speaker: 8th Annual Healthcare Summit, 6 December 2025)

With great pleasure, we welcome you all to the 9th Annual Healthcare Summit – AHS 2026 hosted by the Center for Health and Medical Sciences, Venus International Foundation, Chennai.

The theme of this year's conference is “Early Disease Detection, Personalized Treatment and Prevention (Integrating Technology, Patients and Doctors)”

The AHS 2026 conference provides a forum for talented health care professionals to collaborate in high-quality health services research and practices. It supports to disseminate new scientific knowledge that will help to generate impactful research about the safety and quality, efficiency, and effectiveness of healthcare in order to shape healthcare practice.

The conference allows all participants to celebrate accomplishments, extend peer networks, and jointly explore future research directions.

Further, the conference offers enlightening keynote lectures by renowned experts, followed by scientific sessions with high quality presentations and discussions.

Thank you once again for your support of this conference, and I wish you a fruitful meeting. We look forward to seeing you in December 2026.

Sincerely,
Organizing Committee
